

2017 CYMK-UOY Convention Policies

National CYMK-UOY hosts a program at each biennial National USRL Convention. We, the National Executive and advisors take our responsibility for the participants very seriously. For this reason, we have established a set of policies to ensure the safety, security, well-being, full participation, and enjoyment of every participant at the Convention with an understanding that the program is based in the Orthodox Christian faith, and as such, all participants in the program are expected to follow and to respect the moral and religious teachings of the Orthodox church. And so we ask:

- That each participant (or parent/guardian) reads and completes the Parental Permission & Medical Authorization Releases
- That each advisor and chaperone read and agree to abide with their responsibilities

Reminder:

Participants are solely responsible for their personal effects and belongings, including but not limited to money, clothing, and personal items brought to the conference. The National Executive will not be held liable for any damage to personal effects.

Participants and their guardians (where applicable) are expected to behave responsibly and at all times during the Convention and at any evening activities, abide by the expectations, rules, and regulations as outlined by the National Executive.

Advisor & Chaperone Responsibilities

Welcome to Youth Convention 2017! We have worked hard to assure that this Convention will be the greatest ever! To help make this happen, we need you! The responsible supervision of your group will assist in making this a great Convention for all who attend and everyone who will observe us.

The personnel at the hotel properties desire us to have a good time, and adhering to the following guidelines will indicate to them that we want to make their job easier. Hopefully, these steps will remind the hotel personnel that CYMKivtsi are different from average teens.

The above policies are your responsibility to enforce. Please review them with your CYMKivtsi and presidents before and on-route to the Convention. Be aware of the whereabouts of your delegates at ALL times. Your level of responsibility is an example to your youth members.

1. If you see any person from our convention abusing hotel property or being rowdy in their conduct, please intervene!!
2. Please stress to your group the importance of proper behavior in the sessions. Trips to the restroom, water fountain, etc., should be kept to a minimum, and cell phones should be turned off. The movement of two or three can disrupt hundreds.
3. A midnight curfew has been set. All underage participants must be in their rooms and quiet by this time. 1am for those over 18 years.
4. Last but not least, please do not retire before your CYMKivtsi do! Each day's activities start early, and in order to enjoy every moment to the fullest, the proper amount of rest is needed by you, the chaperone, and your CYMKivtsi.
